Salt Rock Wines

Stellenbosch, South Africa

Winemaker: Xander Grier & Rudolph Steenkamp
Region: Western Cape, South Africa
Location: Stellenbosch, South Africa
Appellation: Stellenbosch, South Africa

Grapes come from Stellenbosch from old Bush vines situated in the Helderberg region on deep granite soils

This wine is made in classic Beaujolais style 40% whole bunch and one punch down a day to allow for softer extraction. Aged in concrete egg to keep the core tight with 15% aged in an old 500L oak barrel.

Practicing Organic

100% Cinsault

About the Winery/Winemaker

Two nomads in the South African wine industry, Xander Grier and Rudolph Steenkamp, came together to collaborate and express themselves in ways that the day-to-day hustle wouldn't allow. At Salt Rock Wines, they aim to create awareness of the effect of two climate phenomena, El Nino and La Nina through a focus a series of dry farmed, coastal, and cool climate sites. The wines Salt Rock produce are suitable for consumption all year round and are serious enough to intrigue the wine aficionado, yet approachable and pleasing for the first-time wine drinker.