

Louis Chenu

Burgundy, France

Winemaker: Juliette & Caroline Chenu

Region: Burgundy, France

Location: Savigny-les-Beaune, France

Appellation: AOP Bourgogne Aligoté

From 1 parcel "Les Boutières" with fairly deep clay- limestone soil with vines that are 70 years old.

The grapes are harvested by hand when ripe, and yields are low.

Pressing takes place on arrival at the winery, without the addition of SO2.

Alcoholic & malolactic fermentation occur naturally with native yeast in stainless steel vats. Fining is carried out if necessary. In spring, this wine is racked, lightly sulfured and bottled. Light filtration on clay. No ageing in casks.

Certified Organic

100% Aligote

About the Winery/Winemaker

A family estate located in Savigny-les-Beaune in Burgundy. The family has been growing vines and ageing wines for five generations. The domain's first vineyard parcels were purchased in 1914 and for years were cultivated by Louis with the help of his wife and daughters. They are committed to respecting the vineyards, producing high-quality wines and welcoming visitors to their cellars. In recent years sisters Juliette and Caroline have taken the reins from their father Louis running the estate themselves. All of the vines are planted in the commune of Savigny-les-Beaune, in the Côte de Beaune. They mainly produce Savigny-les-Beaune Premier Cru wines (Aux Clous, Les Hauts-Jarrons, Les Lavières and Les Talmettes) as well as a very rare white wine from Savigny-les-Beaune Village. Since 2015 the entire domain has been organic.
